

PUBLIC FORUM 2015

MENTAL HEALTH

AND THE JUSTICE SYSTEM: SASKATCHEWAN RESPONDS

NOV. 30, 6:30-9:00PM

NEATBY TIMLIN THEATRE, 241 ARTS BUILDING, U OF S

Dr. Steve Wormith, Moderator

Dr. Wormith, Director of the Centre for Forensic Behavioural Science and Justice Studies, teaches in the Department of Psychology and was the 2015 Inaugural Recipient of the American Psychology Association's Leadership in Education Award.

Dr. Fern Stockdale Winder

Dr. Fern Stockdale Winder is a clinical psychologist who has been practising psychology for nearly 20 years in Saskatchewan with a specialization in health psychology and geriatrics. She was appointed as the Commissioner of the Mental Health and Addictions Action Plan entitled, Working Together for Change, which was released on December 1, 2014. The report made recommendations across service sectors including the areas of justice, policing, and corrections.

Judge S. Metivier

Judge Metivier graduated from the College of Law, University of Saskatchewan, in 1992 and was called to the Bar in 1993. She worked as a lawyer at McKercher LLP until her appointment to the Provincial Court in Saskatoon in April, 2013. She is one of two judges that sits regularly in the Mental Health Strategy (MHS) and is actively involved with the administration of that court.

Inspector Mitch Yuzdepski

Inspector Mitch Yuzdepski is the officer in charge of the Specialized Uniform Operations Division within the Saskatoon Police Service. He sits on the Police And Crisis Team (PACT) Steering Committee and was a member of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police Global Studies Program in 2014 which studied, Improving Outcomes: Mentally Ill Persons and the System.

FREE ADMISSION

For more information, contact
306-966-2687/forensic.centre@usask.ca

Live Stream available at: www.usask.ca/cfbsjs/

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Centre for Forensic Behavioural Science and Justice Studies

USASK.CA/CFBSJS